

Joseph Griffith's The Surrender (painting)

What do you notice in your first "reading" of the painting?	What do you notice in your second "reading" of the painting?	What do you notice in your third "reading" of the painting?

What do you think The Surrender is all about? What is the artist's message/purpose/claim?